CEO'S STATEMENT

At Dreg Waters, we pride ourselves in ensuring that we deliver excellent and timely maritime services to all our clients. We make it our duty to remove all obstacles our clients may encounter by taking full responsibility of delivering all the services they may require.

Damilola Owolabi

CEO, Dreg Waters Petroleum & Logistics Limited

ABOUT US

Dreg Waters Petroleum & Logistics limited provides quality services to the Oil & Gas and Maritime industry. As a company that started off by simply assisting with the procurement of licenses and permits for other firms, Dreg Waters has grown to become a formidable player in the industry. Offering a wider range of services, Dreg Waters is also recognised for its excellent service delivery and customer service. At Dreg Waters, we aim to play a vital role in the Servitization of the Shipping, Oil & Gas Industry.

At Dreg Waters, we aim to play a vital role in the Servitization of the Shipping, Oil & Gas Industry. Dreg Waters is rapidly achieving this by establishing strong networks and strategic alliances with manufacturers and suppliers, to ensure that premium services are provided to the Maritime Industry. We have a vision to deliver only benchmark value-adding business services in the onshore, offshore and marine industries in Nigeria.

AFFILIATIONS - THE BIG THREE

With Nigeria being a nation with huge Maritime needs, and Dreg Waters keen to fulfil these needs, we have forged a lasting relationship with three of the biggest Government agencies involved in the Petroleum and Shipping activities in Nigeria. We term them “The Big Three”. They include:

The Department of Petroleum Resources (DPR): The DPR has the statutory responsibility of ensuring compliance to petroleum laws, regulations, and guidelines in the oil and gas industry. The DPR, established through The Petroleum Division, has since the 1970s regulated petroleum resources in Nigeria.

The Nigerian Maritime Administration & Safety (NIMASA): NIMASA is the apex regulatory and promotional maritime agency in charge of the administration of maritime safety seafarers’ standards and security, maritime labour, shipping regulation, promotion of commercial shipping and Cabotage activities, pollution prevention and control in the marine environment amongst other functions.

The Nigerian Navy: The Nigerian Navy protects the economic interest of the nation in the maritime environment. The Nigerian Navy ensures the security of the maritime environment in cooperation with other government agencies such as Immigration, Customs, Police, The Army, Ports authority and more. Dreg Waters is currently poised to take on more challenging tasks and develop partnerships & affiliations with other Local & International Maritime agencies.
